Administrative Order

2016-03

The Honorable Rosendo Morales, formerly Magistrate for the Municipal Court of the City of San Luis, Arizona, resigned from his judicial position effective close of business on March 1, 2016.

Administrative Order 2005-32 issued on May 16, 2005 by former Arizona Supreme Court Chief Justice Charles E. Jones provides that the Presiding Judge of the Superior Courts in each county exercises general administrative supervision over municipal courts in their respective counties.

The charter of the City of San Luis provides procedures for the selection of judicial officers. That procedure is being initiated for the appointment of a new full time City Magistrate. It is imperative that there be a full time City Magistrate for San Luis Municipal Court to handle daily judicial matters and duties, pending the selection of a permanent City Magistrate.

Arizona Revised Statute §22-403(B) provides in part that a Justice of the Peace may serve as a magistrate without forfeiting the office of Justice of the Peace.

IT THEREFORE ORDERED that Judge Juan Manuel Guerrero is appointed to serve as Magistrate for the Municipal Court of the City of San Luis consistent with the provisions of the City Charter of San Luis, Arizona and the provisions of Administrative Order 2005-32, as amended, and the Arizona Code of Judicial

1 Administration governing the selection of judicial officers, beginning Wednesday, March 2, 2016 through close of 2 business Thursday, June 30, 2016 or until the City of San Luis selects a Magistrate for San Luis Municipal Court.
